Genoa, June 18.

THIS Week arrived here the Marquis de los Balbaſes, on a Galley belonging to this Republick, which was ſent to receive him at Antibes. Another of our Gallies is gone to Marſeilles, there to take on board Sig. Durazzo, who has been Envoy Extraordinary from this State to the Courts of Great Britain and France, and is daily expected here. Mr. D'Avenant, his Britannick Majeſty's Envoy to the great Duke of Tuſcany, is arrived at Florence. Three Companies of Soldiers are returned hither from Final, being part of thoſe employed in demoliſhing the Fortifications there: That Demolition is continued, tho' ſlowly, for fear of damnifying the adjacent Houſes by blowing up the Works.

Vienna, June 19. The Emperour, the Empreſs, and the Elector of Trier, arrived yeſterday at the Favorita, a Palace in our Suburbs, from a Journey which they had made for Devotion to Marienzell. The Preſents which their Imperial Majeſties offered there at the Shrine of the bleſſed Virgin, were a Croſs of Silver and a golden Heart inriched with Diamonds; and his Electoral Highneſs gave a pair of Candleſticks of conſiderable Value. The Government of Comorra, which became vacant by the Death of Prince Mansfeld, is given to the Prince of Beveren. Count Traun, the chief Imperial Commiſſioner at Presbourg, having delivered to the Dyet of the States of Hungary their Articles or Acts approved and ſigned by the Emperour, thoſe States have deputed the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeits and the Palatine Palfi, to make their Compliments of Thanks to his Imperial Majeſty. Count Traurſmanſdorff being made Preſident of the Chamber of Finances at Gratz, will 'tis ſuppoſed be ſoon recalled from his Ambaſſy in Swiſſerland. This Week a conſiderable Sum of Mony has been ſent to Hungary, to pay the Imperial Troops: Men are kept continually at Work in repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of Buda; and ſome Regiments are ordered to advance into Tranſylvania.

Ratisbon, June 24. Count Metternich, the Son, has by the laſt Poſt from Berlin received the Title of Privy-Counſellour, and full Powers from the King of Pruſſia to be his Miniſter in the Electoral College, in the Room of his Father who is gone to the Court of Vienna. On the 21ſt the Miniſters of the Dyet had again the Affair of Kehl and Philipsbourg under Deliberation, but did not bring it to a Concluſion.

Hambourg, June 21. The Pruſſian Troops appointed to aſſiſt in blocking up Wiſmar, having marched on the 23d from Lentzen, have by this time joined the Danes who are to form that Blockade; the Number of thoſe Pruſſians is 6000. Yeſterday arrived here two Ships from Holland, laden with Cannon-Bullets for the King of Pruſſia's Service, which are to be ſent to Berlin and thence to Pomerania. 'Tis adviſed from Copenhagen, that Vice-Admiral Seeſted is uſing all Diligence to get the Squadron fitted out and manned there, which is appointed to Sail to the Coaſt of Pomerania, to aſſiſt in the Attack which 'tis ſuppoſed will be made on the Iſle of Rugen, ſoon after the Junction of the Daniſh and Pruſſian Armies, which 'tis reckoned will be within 8 or 10 Days. That Squadron will conſiſt of 1 Man of War of the Line, 7 or 8 Frigates, 2 Bomb-Veſſels, 2 Fireſhips, and 4 Prames or large Flat-bottomed Boats, one of which is to carry 20 Guns, another 12, and a third 10, the fourth is to ſerve only to carry Artillery or other Stores from on Board the Ships to Land. 'Tis ſaid that Admiral Rabe, who continues with 13 Men of War at Bornholm, will ſee this Squadron to the Place where it is deſigned to act. Theſe Letters from Copenhagen add, that Vice-Admiral Gabel's Return thither through the Sound was daily expected: 'Twas thought he would bring under his Convoy a good Number of Merchant-Ships from Norway; or that if they were not ready to come with him at a ſhort Warning, he would leave 2 Men of War and 3 Frigates in the Categat to take Care of them. We have Advice, that the Duke of Mecklenbourg refuſing to let the King of Denmark have Poſſeſſion of Roſtock, where his Daniſh Majeſty would keep his Magazines, has already formed a Garriſon there of 2000 Militia and 500 Men of regular Troops, and ſet 2000 Peaſants to work upon the Fortifications; and his Highneſs ſeems determined to ſtay in Perſon in the Place to defend it.
